King George, Queen Mary Review at Coronation To Be One Of Record

Fighting Force.

London, April 28.—It is King George V's intention that the review be paraded in the Coronation review at Spithead on June 21, so there are being made all arrangements for the battle numbers with an elaborate build-up that are fit only for harbor service. The probability is that merely the four divisions of the home and Atlantic fleets, with the detached cruiser squadrons, the destroyers the submarine flotillas, the auxiliaries will be assembled. That would total over two vessels. There will be 100 battleships, 100 battle cruisers, 7 protected cruisers, 14 armored cruisers, 31 auxiliaries, 116 destroyers, 20 torpedo boats and 150 submarines. The battleships are all less than ten years old, except seven of the Majestic class.

A concert, given by the Salvation Army band in the Bijou Theatre on First street, yesterday afternoon, was well attended. At six o'clock a meeting was held. One of the objects of these gatherings was to raise $1,000 for the relief of the band of the local corps. Tonight at eight o'clock in the Citadel meeting will be held, at the close of which the band will march to the Bijou. DISAPPOINTED CROWD.

Many aviators spent a great part of yesterday afternoon and evening in the heavens for any indication that the visiting aviator was making his appearance. They had been flying over the river valley to Grand View Heights to the southwest of Strathcona. The birds were the only rewards which they received for their patient vigil. A few minutes before the hour of departure it was learned that the performance was postponed until the arrival of the "Great" bird. However, he had already been indulging in his turn.

SUCCESSOR TO FITZGERALD.

It has fallen to the lot of Inspector Bates of the R.N.W.M.P. who has been appointed to the Yukon for the past few months, to succeed Inspector Fitzgerald, who with two men while on patrol between Dawson and Fort McPherson.

Inspector Bates has just received orders from Headquarters apprising him of the fact that he has succeeded in the trade death of Inspector Fitzgerald.

Inspector Bates has been chosen on account of his long service and experience in the kind of work that the Yukon demands. He has been in the Yukon for seven years and served in the constabulary force which the post established.

May CANCEL R.N.W.M.P. TRIP.

An outbreak of measles in the B.C. N.W. M.P. barracks at Regina, was the cause of the cancellation trip of the force to the Yukon. The men, seven of whom were listed from Alberta, being unable to travel because of the trade death of Inspector Fitzgerald.

Inspector Bates has been chosen on account of his long service and experience in the kind of work that the Yukon demands. He has been in the constabulary force which the post established.

All the members of the force chosen to go to the convention, were to leave Regina on Friday morning, where they were to drill for a few weeks to get in condition.

Providence, however, made application to the men to remain at the Regina barracks until the measles epidemic was over, so that they could be sent to the Yukon in time to meet the convention.

DECOTEAU WINS CROSSES CUP RACE

Dues Five Miles in 28 Min. 31 Secs.
Exceeded by Decoteau, 28 Min. 32 Secs.
Course—Boulevard Round, 29 Min.
11 Sec.—Many Spectators at Finish and Near Start.

Possessor of Cup.

Alex. Decoteau won the Crosses cup race for the fifth time Saturday night, and he has never been equaled in Edmonton to witness the race, he came in fastest to finish the five miles in the remarkably good time of 28 min. 31 sec.

Brooks of the Y.M.C.A. came in second, also 28 minutes, 32 seconds, and in third place was a close third, being only one second behind Brooks.

The race was run over the usual course along May street from 26th to 10th Avenue, then turning to the Boulevard east to 11th Avenue, then turning back to the Boulevard west to 10th Avenue, and back again to the Boulevard west and back along the same course.

The best time made over the same track last year was 28 minutes 47.4 seconds, and the record for Saturday is a record for the course, because it is the first time a different five mile course in a previous season Decoteau made better time than he did in the previous minutes.

According to the rules governing the trophy Decoteau now has the permanent trophy of the cup, having won it three times.

Of the ten entries only nine started, Decoteau and his two supporters up when the runners got away, and the race was off. The race started, and Decoteau jumped into the lead.

MADE IN EDMONTON?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier on Friday made reference to a telegram he received which appeared the previous day in the Toronto Telegram. The article recited an attempt was being made by his party to nominate to force Sir Wilfrid to elect a certain minister—also unnamed—friend of Government. Said the article, "the demand was that he be a 'grafter.' The penalty of Sir Wilfrid's refusal to dismiss him would be to let him remain in office until the minister to whom he was referred came over to the Opposition, and the Government would have to take the odium."

The story was confirmed in the story published in the Telegram. It had been written by a former acquaintance of Mr. Laurier who said the one in his defense had been beaten and that he was ejected from the cabinet the evidence held to be vindictive. He had been forced to leave the Opposition and Sir Wilfrid would have to suffer the consequences. He had heard the story, considered the statement to be true, and reluctantly agreed to do as was demanded and told the caller to do what he pleased with him.

Neither the Telegram nor Sir Wilfrid gave the name of the accused minister or the party he belongs to. Sir Wilfrid, however, tendered the information that the minister attacked was Hon. Frank Oliver, and the instrument of accusation was the article written by the editor of the Calgary News. It is the World's information it is correct it is easy to guess when the heads would be cut off if the story were true. During the winter the few young gentlemen hereabouts who desire their ambition to be in Mr. Oliver's position have been writing to the Free Press about the streets of a terrible fate that will befall any who write such stories. If Mr. Oliver is the intended victim of the "exposure" mentioned through the Telegram and Mr. Macleod, it is safe to say that the "grafters" also know that the "grafted" ends of the bows must be cut off before they have said they were putting them together.

If so, the manufacturers seem to have been very unsuccessful. Certainly no one has been hit at the moment. Their project, for instance, to task and pull the cartoon to throw it if he wanted to. Clearly, too, the Minister of Agriculture has agreed, either into resigning or investigating up high money. It is equally clear that the Opposition would be compelled to withdraw the appearance of the minister for either used it or made speech when it did not make speech when it did not make speech. Moreover, Mr. Laurier is not willing to make us or as we suspect a member of the other chamber.

So far as the only person who seems to have been hurt by the explosion is Mr. Macleod Macleoddy. To a reporter who asked him if he was a man which is not widely envied, he said—"rightly or wrongly—the accusation is that he was responsible under cover while he was acting under public assume responsibility for. And if the sheet said to have been there, Mr. Macleoddy is the one said to have been manufacturing the Edmonton enemies of Mr. Oliver. Mr. Macleoddy stands in the same position as the man in the body else. Who was the man behind him, the burden of whose cowardice is being borne?"

AGAINST.

"Confused," worse confounded; seems to be the present state of mind of the opposition to the proposed arbitration. On Saturday six of them voted for an amendment demanding that the bill be drawn from the free list, and that the government's amendment be passed. On Monday, however, they declared they had not had time to consider the bill, and to defeat the contemplated Anglo-American arbitration treaty. The National Progressive party, which has a committee, initiated that movement a day ago and now makes its stand known, and demands that petitions be used to their influence to defeat the bill.

Moreover, it is no secret that the German socialist of the United States are working quietly against the treaty.

The confusion was not really necessary, as no one any longer can be consistent. They have no men on this question talked one way one day and the other the next day. They have changed their minds to all have their vote out one way on Saturday and talk the other way on Sunday. They have changed their whole party front in much less than forty-eight hours during the present session, and attacked the agreement from a position absolutely the reverse of that that they occupied the day before, when they supported it.

In this, it will be observed, some of them are credited with favoring arbitration, though nothing tangible is offered, demands made, and a hurried scurvy for cover occurs so long as they are recognized in the house, and they are recognizing matters at once, even at the cost of proclaiming their added condition of things.

The members themselves admit them, and attack the agreement from a position absolutely the reverse of that that they occupied the day before, when they supported it.

The one thing the opposition members seem to want thoroughly and most uniformly is to get out of the bill against the agreement, in part or whole, absolutely and finally. That is about as satisfactory as could be desired, and the Liberal papers would be satisfied if the full help could be given to their position. The bill is not a good one, but the opposition is not strong enough to force it through the house.

This week fighting was entirely discontinued, and the opposition, especially on the Irish question, A. J. Laliberte renewed the attempt, primarily to force the bill through. Fighting Rule from the operation of the voting machine.

This attempt was first made in the conference last year, and indeed the bill was introduced in the house on down that point the Liberal leader obstinately and uncompromisingly insisted on a vote of non-confidence on the Irish claim.

Halifair, however, still persists in his efforts to force the bill through.

TONIGHT

Also on Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings

At 63 McDougall Avenue South, in the SETON SMITH CO'S. Office

There will be offered for sale

200 LOTS

In the choice subdivision of EASTMOUNT in CAMROSE

Positively Without Reserve

These lots are all high and dry and suitable for building purposes. The average price for this property should be about $100 per lot according to prices on adjoining properties, however this bunch of lots will be sold regardless of price to highest bidders, on terms as follows:

Half Cash at time of Sale and Balance payable in 3, 6, and 9 months without interest.

THIS PROPERTY IS LOCATED ONLY ABOUT HALF MILE FROM THE C.N.R. Station and Freight Yards, and is all first class good land not low or broken by any ravines, the C.N.R. runs through the property and the town of CAMROSE owns about 12 acres of the land which will probably be used for PARK PURPOSES.

This is certainly a great opportunity for a small investment, CAMROSE is bound to be a good town of at least four or five thousand people and when it is this property we are now offering will be worth at least $200 per lot. This is not to be compared with buying in some new townsites. The future of CAMSOSE, like Edmonton, is assured. These lots will no doubt go very fast and probably will go cheap, so be on hand at 8 p.m. at the office of

The Seton Smith Co.

LABOR SITUATION REACHES A CRISIS

Declaration of Open Shop by Extrange Tries Effect Today—Much Anxiety as to the Outcome—Strikes in Labor Disturbances Continue in Various Centres

The declaration of open shop made by the general contractors of the Edmonton Builders' Exchange on February 8th came into force yesterday. The effect upon the labor situation in the city is awaiting with interest. In view of the importance of the work contemplated for the entire year, the hope is very generally expressed that the difference may arise between the contractors and the workers which has prevailed or late, however, some anxiety is felt for the outcome. The contractors insist that the workers persist in their declaration that they anticipate no trouble. But because of the present state of mind of the public, there are many currents of feeling which are not without significance. It is stated that the contractors are not prepared to meet the demands of the workers, and recently declared open shop, met with a sweeping victory. A Bruce International Plumbers and Steamfitters Association arrived at the city yesterday, and the members were given an interview in Xerxes.

In 1872 the opponents of Confederation were unable to elect a single member to oppose the Government of Sir John A. Macdonald, and he became the sole representative of the Canadian people.
